

Homes are some sentences that describe shopping. One sentence describes shopping in a city, one sentence describes shopping in a town and one sentence describes shopping in a village. Can you work out which sentences describes which settlement?

Shopping

I have one small shop that sells essential groceries mostly and my prices are quite expensive.

Shopping

You can buy anything here. There are lots of supermarkets, department stores and some shopping malls.

Shopping

I have several supermarkets. Also there are a few specialist shops selling a wide range of different items.

Your tasks:

- Cut out these statements.
- Sort them into three groups. Sentences that describe a village, a town or a city.
- Stick them in your exercise book grouped together correctly.

Town

Village

City

Leisure Some people enjoy swimming in my pool. Other people enjoy visiting my cinema.	Leisure You can visit my many restaurants, theatres and museums. I have sporting stadiums and many sporting venues.	Leisure You can visit my pub or go for walks in my surrounding fields.	People Many hundreds of thousands of people live in my houses and apartments.
People Many thousands of people live in my houses.	People A few hundred people live in my cottages and houses.	Jobs Most people who work here live locally. Some people work in my factories and some people work in my offices.	Jobs Not many people work here. Most people travel to nearby settlements to work.
Jobs Lots of people travel to me to work in my large office blocks.	Roads I have quiet residential roads, busy thorough roads and even busier roads connecting me with surrounding cities. I have a long rush hour.	Roads There are narrow lanes and roads. The roads are not busy and there is no rush hour.	Roads There are quiet residential roads and busy thorough roads. There is a rush hour.