

NICK PARK !

Nick Park is a very famous Prestonian and he has achieved lots of things in his life. We as House captains believe that he should be the new role model and name for the yellow house. He was born on the 6th December 1958. He is a British animator, director , producer and writer who created lots of films that are very famous and many people still watch them . His full name is Nicholas Wulstan Park and he is 62 years old .

The journey of his life

He grew up with a keen interest in drawing cartoons, and as a 13 year old made films with the help of his mother and her home movie camera and cotton bobbins. He took after his father and enjoyed making home movies.

Nick Park films

- Wallace and Gromit
- Creature Comforts
- Chicken Run
- Shaun the Sheep
- The Curse of the were-rabbit,(my favourite)
- A close shave

Sir Tom Finney

5th April 1922 – 14th February 2014

Finney played 433 matches for Preston North End and scored 187 goals and played 77 for England and scored 30 goals. He was known as one of sports greatest ever players.

Finney played football in wartime tournaments as well as serving in the war in Egypt and Italy.

When the war was over Finney returned to football, however he still continued to work as a plumber.

The Splash sculpture outside Preston North End is inspired by the 1956 sports photograph of the year which shows Finney beating 2 Chelsea defenders at a waterlogged Stamford Bridge.

Andrew “Freddie” Flintoff

He was born on the 6th of December 1977 (That is the same birthday as Nick Park!!)

He is a very famous Prestonian and he used to be a very famous cricket player. He is currently 43 years old and has four children.

Fun fact: One of his children is called Preston Flintoff. Named after his - and our - home town .

More about his life

- He played professionally for the England cricket team and they won many matches.
- He also played for ICC World XI
- He got an MBE from the Queen
- His children are called: Preston, Cory ,Holly & Rocky
- He is married to Rachel Woods Flintoff
- Charlotte's dad used to work with his uncle!

Isaac Mabaya

Isaac went to Sherwood Primary School and at 17 he has just signed for Liverpool FC .

More about Isaac

While at Sherwood he was the first to win the Sherwood sporting superstar award.

He had also played for England in the U15 and U16 teams

Fun fact: My dad has also coached him in football.

